PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION AGENT FOR HOPKINS AND FRANKLIN COUNTIES

This letter is to introduce Kasey Curtin as the Prairie View A&M Cooperative Extension Agent (CEP) for Agriculture and Natural Resources (AgNR) for Hopkins & Franklin Counties, effective August 6, 2024.

Mrs. Curtin grew up in Hunt County and earned a Bachelor of Science in Equine Studies and Animal Science at Texas A&M University-Commerce, Commerce, Texas, and a Master of Science in Agriculture at Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Mrs. Curtin has prior experience in sustainable agriculture, equine management, and agricultural education. She has been an Agriculture and Natural Resources for Prairie View A&M for the past two years in Wood & Upshur Counties. She was also previously the graduate assistant at Twin Oaks Farm for Experiential Learning at Texas A&M University-Commerce where she managed the daily farm operations and assisted with undergraduate sustainable agriculture classes.

Prairie View A&M University was established in 1872 as the 2nd land grant public institution of higher education within the State of Texas. Their Cooperative Extension Program offers educational programs and university resources within the four areas of Family and Consumer Sciences, 4-H and Youth Development, Community and Economic Development, and Agriculture and Natural Resources. As an AgNR Agent, Mrs. Curtin is here to serve producers, landowners, small farmers, and ranchers within Wood and Upshur Counties.
